MAPOON ABORIGINAL SHIRE COUNCIL

Councillor Code of Conduct

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

Councillor Code of Conduct

Purpose of Code of Conduct

This Code of Conduct sets out the principles and standards of behaviour expected of Councillors and the Mayor of Mapoon Aboriginal Shire Council when carrying out their role's responsibilities and obligations as elected representatives for their community. By adhering to the behaviours set out in this policy Councillors will increase public confidence in local government and Council decisions.

Background

Under section 150D of the Local Government Act 2009 (the LGA), the Minister for Local Government (the Minister) must make a Code of Conduct stating the standards of behaviour for Councillors in the performance of their responsibilities as Councilors. In addition to this, the Code of Conduct may contain anything the Minister considers necessary for, or incidental to, the standards of behaviour.

Before assuming public office, Councillors must understand and commit to complying with the local government principles and obligations of Councillors in accordance with section 169 of the LGA, as well as the standards of behaviour set out in this Code of Conduct. All Councillors are required to make a declaration of office under section 169 of the LGA. As part of that declaration, Councillors must declare that they will abide by this Code of Conduct.

The local government principles and values

The LGA is founded on five local government principles with which Councillors must comply while performing their roles as elected representatives. These principles are listed below:

1. Transparent and effective processes, and decision-making in the public interest
2. Sustainable development and management of assets and infrastructure, and delivery of effective services
3. Democratic representation, social inclusion and meaningful community engagement.
4. Good governance of, and by, local government
5. Ethical and legal behaviour of Councillors and local government employees.

This Code of Conduct provides a set of values that describe the types of conduct Councillors should demonstrate to ensure their compliance with the local government principles. These values are listed below:

MAPOON ABORIGINAL SHIRE COUNCIL Councillor Code of Conduct

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

1. In making decisions in the public interest, Councillors will:
 - make decisions in open council meetings
 - properly inform relevant personnel of all relevant information
 - make decisions in accordance with law and policy
 - commit to exercising proper diligence, care and attention.

2. To ensure the effective and economical delivery of services, Councillors will:
 - manage council resources effectively, efficiently and economically
 - foster a culture of excellence in service delivery.

3. In representing and meaningfully engaging with the community, Councillors will:
 - show respect to all persons
 - clearly and accurately explain Council's decisions
 - accept and value differences of opinion.

4. In exercising good governance, Councillors are committed to:
 - the development of open and transparent processes and procedures
 - keeping clear, concise and accessible records of decisions.

5. To meet the community's expectations for high level leadership, Councillors will:
 - be committed to the highest ethical standards
 - uphold the system of local government and relevant laws applicable.

This Code of Conduct also sets out standards of behaviour aimed at helping Councillors understand how the principles and values are put into practice while performing their official duties as elected representatives.

Each standard of behaviour is not intended to cover every possible scenario. However, they provide general guidance about the manner in which Councillors are expected to conduct themselves.

It is important to note that the principles, values and standards set out in the Code of Conduct are of equal importance.

Standers of behaviour

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

This Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behaviour applying to all Councillors in Queensland. The behavioural standards relate to, and are consistent with, the local government principles and their associated values.

The standards of behaviour are summarised as the three Rs, being:

- 1. RESPONSIBILITIES
- 2. RESPECT
- 3. REPUTATION.

Each standard of behaviour includes, but is not limited to, several examples to guide Councillors in complying with the Code of Conduct when carrying out their role as elected officials. Councillors are to understand and comply with the following standards of behaviour as set out in the Code of Conduct listed below.

1. Carry out RESPONSIBILITIES conscientiously and in the best interests of the Council and the community.

For example, Councillors will, at a minimum, have the following responsibilities:

- 1.1 Attend and participate meaningfully in all Council meetings, committee meetings, informal meetings, briefings, relevant workshops and training opportunities to assist them in fulfilling their roles other than in exceptional circumstances and/or where prior leave is given
- 1.2 Respect and comply with all policies, procedures and resolutions of Council
- 1.3 Use only official Council electronic communication accounts (e.g. email accounts) when conducting Council business
- 1.4 Report any suspected wrongdoing to the appropriate entity in a timely manner
- 1.5 Ensure that their behaviour or capacity to perform their responsibilities as a Councillor is not impaired by the use of substances that may put them or others at risk while performing their duties (for example, alcohol, illegal drugs or prescribed/non-prescribed and/or restricted substances)
- 1.6 Cooperate with any investigation being undertaken by the local government or other entity.

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

2. Treat people in a reasonable, just, RESPECTFUL and non-discriminatory way.

For example, Councillors will, at a minimum, act in the following ways:

- 2.1 Treat fellow Councillors, Council employees and members of the public with courtesy, honesty and fairness,
- 2.2 Not use abusive, obscene or threatening language (either oral or written) or behaviour towards other Councillors, Council employees and members of the public, and
- 2.3 Have proper regard for other people's rights, obligations, cultural differences, safety, health and welfare.

3. Ensure conduct does not reflect adversely on the REPUTATION of Council

For example, Councillors will, at a minimum, conduct themselves in the following manner:

- 3.1 When expressing an opinion dissenting with the majority decision of Council, respect the democratic process by acknowledging that the Council decision represents the majority view of the Council
- 3.2 When making public comment, clearly state whether they are speaking on behalf of Council or expressing their personal views
- 3.3 At all times strive to maintain and strengthen the public's trust and confidence in the integrity of Council and avoid any action which may diminish its standing, authority or dignity

Consequences of failing to comply with the Code of Conduct

Failure to comply with the standards of behaviour in this Code of Conduct, or other conduct prescribed in this code of conduct may give rise to a complaint against a Councillor's conduct and subsequent disciplinary action under the LGA.

A complaint about the conduct of a Councillor must be submitted to the Office of the Independent Assessor (OIA), who will assess the complaint and determine the category of the allegation. In order of least to most serious, the categories of complaint are unsuitable meeting conduct, inappropriate conduct, misconduct, and then corrupt conduct.

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

Unsuitable meeting conduct

Under section 150H of the LGA, any conduct by a Councillor that is contrary to the standards of behavior in the Code of Conduct that occurs within a meeting of Council (including standing committee meetings), is dealt with as unsuitable meeting conduct.

Unsuitable meeting conduct by a Councillor is dealt with by the Chairperson of the meeting. It is important that the Chairperson deal with matters of unsuitable meeting conduct locally, and as efficiently and effectively as possible so that Council can continue with their business of making effective decisions in the public interest.

Note: Chairpersons of meetings are carrying out a statutory responsibility under the LGA to manage and lead the meeting. As such, where a Chairperson behaves inappropriately in a meeting this involves a serious breach of the trust placed in them as the Chairperson of the meeting and may be dealt with as misconduct (see below).

Inappropriate conduct

Under section 150K of the LGA, any conduct by a Councillor that is contrary to the standards of behavior in the Code of Conduct or a policy, procedure or resolution of a Council, and is not unsuitable meeting conduct, misconduct or corrupt conduct is dealt with as inappropriate conduct.

The conduct of a Councillor is also inappropriate conduct if the conduct contravenes an order by the Chairperson of a meeting of Council for the Councillor to leave the meeting or is a series of conduct at Council meetings that leads to orders for the Councillor's unsuitable meeting conduct being made on three occasions within a period of one year. The local government is not required to notify the OIA and may deal with the conduct under section 150AG of the LGA.

The OIA is responsible for assessing allegations of suspected inappropriate conduct other than that arising from unsuitable meeting conduct. If the OIA chooses to refer the matter to the Council to deal with, the Council must deal with the matter as quickly and effectively as possible.

Misconduct

Councillors are required to comply with all laws that apply to local governments. This includes refraining from engaging in misconduct.

The OIA is responsible for assessing and investigating instances of suspected misconduct. The OIA may then refer the matter to the Councillor Conduct Tribunal to be heard and determined.

The conduct of a Councillor is misconduct if the conduct:

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

- adversely affects, directly or indirectly, the honest and impartial performance of the Councillor's functions or exercise of powers, or
- is, or involves:
 - a breach of trust placed in the Councillor, either knowingly or recklessly
 - misuse of information or material acquired by the Councillor, whether the misuse is for the benefit of the Councillor or for the benefit or to the detriment of another person
 - a Councillor giving a direction to any Council employee (other than the Mayor giving direction to the Chief Executive Officer
 - a release of confidential information outside of the Council
 - failure by a Councillor to report a suspected material personal interest or conflict of interest of another Councillor, or
- is a failure by the Councillor to comply with:
 - an order made by the Council or the Councillor Conduct Tribunal,
 - any acceptable request guidelines of the Council made under section 170A of the LGA,
 - the reimbursement of expenses policy of the Council.

The conduct of a Councillor is also misconduct if the conduct leads to the Councillor being disciplined for inappropriate conduct on three occasions within a period of one year or is conduct that is identified in an order of council that will be dealt with as misconduct if the Councillor engages in the conduct again.

Corrupt conduct

Corrupt conduct is defined by, and dealt with, under the Crime and Corruption Act 2001 and must be referred to the Crime and Corruption Commission. For a Councillor, corrupt conduct involves behaviour that:

- adversely affects or could adversely affect the performance of the Councillor's responsibilities,

MAPOON ABORIGINAL SHIRE COUNCIL Councillor Code of Conduct

RESOLUTION NO 150/20. VERSION V3

- and involves the performance of the Councillor's responsibilities in a way that:
 - is not honest or impartial, or
 - involves a breach of the trust placed in the Councillor, or
 - involves the misuse of information acquired by the Councillor, and
- is engaged in for the purpose of providing a benefit or a detriment to a person, and
- if proven would be a criminal offence.

The OIA has entered into a section 40 arrangement with the Crime and Corruption Commission (CCC) which allows the OIA to commence investigation into some allegations of corrupt conduct and report the matters to the CCC on a monthly basis, to provide the CCC with the opportunity to take over an investigation, should the CCC consider that appropriate.

When the OIA deals with corrupt conduct which is a statutory offence under the LGA, the OIA has the discretion to deal with the matter either as misconduct or as a criminal prosecution of the statutory offence. For an understanding of when the OIA will deal with corrupt conduct as misconduct refer to the OIA's prosecution policy at www.oia.qld.gov.au/resources/oia/policy/guidelines-for-commencing-a-prosecution-underlga.pdf.
